

FEDERAL AID FOR LEXINGTON PIKE

Will Be Asked By Madison Fiscal Court and Entire 12 Miles To River May Be Built of Concrete

Plans have been made by which the Madison County Fiscal Court will apply for state-aid in reconstruction of the Lexington pike to the river. It is believed that the sum of $100,000 can be secured from federal aid, and this supplemented by $100,000 will provide sufficient funds to build the entire Madison county portion of the road out of concrete, undoubtedly the best and most permanent roadway that can be built. There are approximately 12 miles of this road and it is the most traveled road in the county, and the court felt that it should be built of permanent material through the federal aid which can be secured by the county on this road as an inter-county seat highway and part of the Dixie Highway.

Other important road work is projected by the court, and plans are now being pushed for use of tarvia treatment on the seven pikes radiating out of Richmond.

The question of another vote on the 20-cents road tax question is being agitated considerably by those who would like to see the tax voted so as to provide what they believe will be adequate funds to put all of the county roads in first class shape. It is said to be probable that another election may be held later on in the year to test the sentiment of the voters again on this question.

Plans for resurfacing the pike to Berea are under way. Up at Berea last week, private subscriptions amounting to over $4000 were raised for this fund, to be used on the road from Berea to Lexington. Berea College is said to have contributed $300 to this fund.

WOMEN BACKING THE SOLDIER BOY.

When the history of the war has been written, the work done by the women at home will impress itself upon itself upon art and literature. Literally, millions of women left their homes and took up war activities into which women had never before been called, and many more at home devoted long hours at work in knitting and preparing surgical dressings for the boys "over there." Some may have worked at the expense of health and are now suffering from headaches, backache, dragging-down pains or some derangement. It should be remembered that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for women has been restoring such women to health and strength, and is now recognized as a standard.

"A RELIGION OF RIGHT THINKING"

Subject of Address By Clarence W. Chadwick, Christian Scientist, At Court House Tuesday Evening.

Mr. Clarence W. Chadwick, a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, spoke to an appreciative audience at the court house Tuesday evening. His subject was "A Religion of Right Thinking." Mr. Chadwick is a profound scholar and an able exponent of the teachings of his denomination and was given a most cordial welcome to Richmond by many friends. He was introduced in a few appropriate words by Mrs. T. K. Hamilton. Mr. Chadwick then spoke as follows:

Christian Science is attracting world-wide attention. For more than half a century it has been winning its way into the consciousness of humanity. Countless thousands have accepted Mrs. Eddy's discovery as the revealed word of God to this age. And why? Because they have heard its message of "on earth peace good will toward men," have felt its healing touch of Truth; have experienced the influence of the "quickening spirit" of divine Love, lifting thought to higher planes of thinking and living; and are supremely happy in having learned to make practical application of the Master's teachings, thereby to work out their own salvation.

If there are any who are still inclined to ask, Has Christianity failed? let them study the effect of Christian Science upon the world. It will be seen that in sincerely accepted its inspired teachings; let them observe the marvelous transformation in health and morals of those with whom they are personally acquainted; let them note how selfishness and unkindness have given place to unselfishness and kindness; how the spirit of giving has taken possession of these people, even to the extent of surrendering all to follow Christ; let them observe their loyalty and patriotism in the hour of their country's need; and then let them say whether Christianity is a failure.

The Science of Christianity never fails; but humanity may fail to obey its precepts. Such failure on its part is the cause of all our ills, and is the result of wrong ideas and wrong thinking. How to obey the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount is a problem not yet completely solved. It should begin as soon as possible, to cultivate a more metaphysical attitude of thought. There is nothing metaphysical in the belief that man is made of dust and returns to dust. It does require a certain degree of spiritual enlightenment to know that man is immortal, not mortal, and that his immortal spirit is supplied with enlightenment.

The real or spiritual man is mentioned in the first chapter of Genesis, wherein we read: "God created man in his own image." The first thing needed on our part, then, is to acquire an understanding of the real man, in order to determine the nature of his image. Christian Science emphasizes the thought that God is infinite Spirit, and that his image or likeness must be spiritual, perfect, and harmonious as God himself. The real man, then, must be spiritual, perfect, and harmonious as God himself. The real man, then, must be spiritual, perfect, and harmonious as God himself.

Mrs. Eddy's vision of the Christ not only healed her of the effects of a so-called fatal accident, but enabled her to see the Christ in every human being. Her whole earthly life, from childhood was one continuous search after spiritual things. She sought all to follow Christ, and behold the result—a discovery which is bringing untold blessings to the world.

Mrs. Eddy named her discovery Christian Science. She was, to use her own words, "the real man of God," creating, and this acquaintance reveals to us the secret of Christian healing.

Endless gratitude is due to Mrs. Eddy for having explained to the world the true significance of the two diametrically opposite accounts for what is found in the first and second chapters of Genesis. Until she learned the meaning of God's thoughts "or ideas," she could not make this explanation.

GOD'S THOUGHTS DEFINED

God's thoughts are not the visionary imaginings of the erring human mind. "The thoughts of men are vanity," saith the Lord. It must be conceded that Jesus' mode of thinking was not the thoughts of men. He was controlled by the one infinite Mind. Mortals are too often under the control of the so-called "carnal mind," which is the seat of all evil, sinful, and depraved; all that is opposed to the nature of God, or good. When we learn to think as Jesus thought, we shall perceive the sharp distinction that he made between the human and the divine. We shall learn that godlike thoughts are endowed with the power to overcome all evil, and to bring about the reign of God in the human mind. As our Leader tells us on page 9 of "Rudimentary Divine Science": "The spiritual power which is the right thought, without a direct effort, an audible, or even a mental argument, has oftentimes healed inveterate diseases."

It is time to learn that mortal thoughts have neither life nor healing power, and that in due time all such thoughts will be destroyed. The consciousness, along with the so-called mind that conceives them, God's thoughts or ideas are the eternal facts of being, and are not subject to any mistakes of an erring, counterfeited mind, so called, which knows not God.

The ability to discern God's thoughts and to know that such thoughts are clothed with all law, power, and authority to annul every phase of wrong thinking, was what enabled Mrs. Eddy to explain to the world the modus operandi of Christian healing.

MISSION OF AN IDEA

The life is not self-existent; that humanity's greatest need is to grasp the thoughts or ideas of God? Need we wonder at the induction of Scripture: "Accurately know thyself, and God will be at peace." If we cannot know the thoughts that God is eternally thinking, how can we know ourselves? Should we feel that we are acquainted with some fragment of whose thoughts were revealed to us?

It has been said that "ideas are the warriors of the world." They have won life and won its greatest battles. The human mind has been enlightened through the activity of some "grand idea." Divine law comes into action through the activity of some "grand idea." Because it is always clothed with divine authority and power, it has never been known to fail in the final accomplishment of its holy mission. The only sense of ability or power to accomplish anything worth while has been known to fail in the final accomplishment of its holy mission. The only sense of ability or power to accomplish anything worth while has been known to fail in the final accomplishment of its holy mission.

This, then, is the primary mission of Christian Science, to acquaint humanity with God through the medium of right ideas. Not through any human thought, feeling, or emotion, but through the approach to God by means of the "true idea," the "divine idea," the "idea of God," the "idea of the Father," the "idea of the Son," the "idea of the Holy Spirit," the "idea of the Kingdom of God," the "idea of the New Jerusalem," the "idea of the New Covenant," the "idea of the New Law," the "idea of the New Commandments," the # GERMANS WILL REFUSE TO SIGN

Hun Cabinet Tells Associated Press and Ask More Time To Write Notes About Treaty.

(By Associated Press)

Berlin, May 21—Bulletin—"Germany declines to sign the peace terms because they mean economic destruction, political dishonor and the moral degradation of the entire German nation, not only for the present but also for still unborn generations," was the statement authorized by the cabinet through the Associated Press

The statement asserts the entente is unjustified in making such demands and indicated that Germany is relying upon a peace founded upon Wilson's 14 points, which apparently are misquoted in the statement, and says, "America must either put these 14 points through or must declare she is unable to do so or that she does not want to do so, so that in no case may the world be led to believe the American desire to have the peace conditions to count as Wilson's 14 points. That is our demand, to which we cling and we cannot imagine what argument from the American side would be effective against it.

Statements along similar lines have been made by President Ebert and other Germans in high places. Meanwhile European dispatches show Germany's representatives are still endeavoring to secure a modification of the terms. Yesterday they sent their 10th note to Peace Conference since the peace terms were presented today, according to a Paris dispatch, to Lord Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of German delegation, asked for an extension of time for Germany to present her reply, saying further notes are prepared and that it is impossible to complete them before one P. M. Thursday when the time limit expires.

OPPOSITION TO SPIRITUAL FACTS

Figuratively speaking, the Christ-idea never sailed upon a smooth sea. False, human nature opposes it at every step. This nature is naturally unprogressive and intolerant. There is nothing more distasteful to the evil one than spiritual facts; since facts are ideas which always reveal the truth concerning evil.

The only opponent of spiritual truth is the mortal or fleshly mind, the so-called good and evil mind of mortals. It would be inconsistent for this so-called mortal mind not to oppose its concept of truth. This mind, laden with the traditions of men, strangled by malice, envy, and hatred, and torn with bitter contentions and strife, must experience a change of heart before surrendering its opposition to spirituality.

Christian Science is here to bring about this change of heart, and the process of transformation is already active and widespread. Thousands who at one time were bitterly opposed to Christian Science, have, in their extremity, gone to it for help, have received their healing, and are now among its most ardent advocates. Is this not tangible proof of the impotency and unsustainability of what is

The untold sufferings of humanity prove that there is something wrong in the human order of things; and the sooner humanity looks within to discover what it is that would crucify the Christ-Idea, the sooner will it awaken to know God aright, and prove by demonstration that He is not the author of evil.

HEALTH AND DISEASE
 Christian Scientists are naturally a great deal more interested in the subject of health than in disease. They have found out that the right idea of health, when intelligently presented to humanity, is far more contagious than the thought of disease. They do not believe in falling sick and then having to become proficient in the human knowledge of disease before learning how to be well. They have learned that health is the normal condition of man in Christian Science, and that disease is a mistake of the erring human mind, to be corrected by a right understanding of health as an attribute of God.

disease never has healed and never will heal anyone; but that a positive or demonstrable knowledge of the truth does enable one to overcome belief in disease. Why believe in the power and reality of disease when such belief can never bring surcease of suffering? Resort to a higher state of consciousness is man's only remedy for disease or sin. And how shall this be attained?

Darkness, which is but the absence of light, is dispelled the moment the light is allowed to enter. Just so with disease: it also is dissipated the moment ment the right idea of health is allowed to dominate human consciousness. Whatever is corrective or reformatory must emanate from God. One human belief will not truly correct another. A lesser evil cannot do away with a greater one. No human mistake can correct another mistake. It is a mistake to believe in the actuality of any thing which does not emanate from God. If sickness and suffering are of God, Jesus would not have healed them; nor could Christian Science heal them today if they are a part of the divine consciousness. The right idea or conception of God reveals them as human mistakes or errors of mortal thinking; and only as the Christ-mind is put on, and the mortal or mortal

Richmond Daily Register

S. M. SAUFLEY, Editor and Proprietor
Entered at the postoffice in Richmond as second class mail matter under Act of Congress of 1875.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS
The Daily Register is authorized to announce the following candidates for nomination, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, August 2, 1919:
For Representative,
T. H. COLLINS

For Representative in Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party and the special election to be held August 2, 1919, in the Eighth Congressional district:
CHARLES A. HARDIN,
of Mercer county.

Bear With Us A Little Longer

The Daily Register again bespeaks the patience and consideration of its readers, and may have to do so again until its new press is installed and running in its new building. The old press broke a vital part again late last week, and for three days now, the paper has been printed on the press of its esteemed contemporary, the Pantagraph, through the kindness of its generous proprietor, Col. E. B. Smith. This has caused him a lot of inconvenience as well as the Register, and restricted this paper to four pages daily, when six or eight often should have been printed.

Just as soon as that new press can be used, however, the small six-point type that much of the news has been set in, will be discarded as news type, and a larger type used on the news matter in the paper.

The Daily Register's building is going up as rapidly as the almost continuous rainy weather will permit, and the big fast press is expected in shortly, so that the hope is entertained that the troubles that old, worn out machinery often cause, will not last always. Thank you.

AMSTER DIDN'T SELL

Mr. Sam Amster, who recently moved from Red House to Lexington, writes the Daily Register, that the report that he had sold his business at Red House to his son, is a mistake. Mr. Amster says that the only son he has is just 10 years old, who is with him in Lexington. Mr. Amster says that he has not sold his holdings to any one. The mistake was probably caused by the fact that Mr. Morris Amster has gone into business at Red House.

HINDOO WARRIOR HERE

Ehli Kitab, who uses the English name of A. Osborne, and who is touring this country for the missionary education movement of the United States and Canada, stayed in Richmond for two days. Mr. Osborne was born in India, and educated at the University of Calcutta, India, served in the present European conflict, and saw service in the far east. He attracted much attention with his East Indian turban and British uniform. He spoke at the Methodist church.

TEACHERS MUST ### BE EXAMINED

All school teachers in Kentucky must now be examined in agriculture. The following from a recent government bulletin will be of interest:

1. All teachers except those teaching in cities of the first, second, third, and fourth classes, shall be examined in the subject of Agriculture. This examination may be taken at any of the regular examinations for teachers on the third Friday and Saturday of May, June, and September.

2. The questions for such examinations will be taken from government bulletins Nos. 54 and 56, furnished by the Agricultural department of the State University.

3. These questions and answers are now in the hands of the county superintendents and may be had free of charge by all teachers and prospective teachers.

4. Examination in the subject of Agriculture will be held on Saturday afternoon of regular examination day so that the teachers whose certificates have not expired may take the examination in this, the 12th subject, and have the grade made in such subject added to their certificate yet in force.

5. All teachers now holding certificates but who are compelled to take examination in agriculture, will pay a fee of 25 cents for such examination, but those persons taking the full examination and all the 12 subjects will pay the regular fee of $1.

HAVE MANY FRIENDS HERE

Douglas Clay, of Paris, and Miss Jane Addams, of Frankfort, both well known here, were married at Shelbyville late last week. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Addams, of Frankfort, formerly of Lincoln county, and is a very attractive and lovable young woman. The bridegroom, who has recently returned from overseas where he was a member of the Barrow unit, is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Clay.

KILLS HIS BROTHER.

George Owens, 21, was shot and instantly killed near Mt. Lebanon, in Jessamine county, by his brother, Sam Owens. The young men, in company with Morris Motley, their brother-in-law, and Opal Blakeman, were hunting ground hogs and on seeing the animal on the cliff, Samuel, who was behind his brother, raised his pistol and attempted to shoot, when the bullet struck his brother's head near the center of the skull, killing him instantly.

CHILD KILLED BY LYE

Sylvester, the 19-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, of Winchester, was seriously injured about the mouth and throat by concentrated lye, which he found open on a shelf.

TO RENEW BLUE GRASS FAIR

The Blue Grass Fair of Lexington, one of the oldest and best in Central Kentucky, which was suspended during the war, is to be revived, and at a meeting of directors the proposition to give exhibitions this year was unanimously endorsed. The Board of Commerce will ask a guarantee of $2,000 to aid in financing the exhibition.

FATHER SCHULTE SPEAKS

Father H. B. Schulte has returned from Lexington where he delivered an address Sunday at the meeting of the Knights of Columbus, which was held at their new building on Limestone street. There were 68 candidates initiated into Blue Grass Council No. 723. Father Schulte's subject was "The Scope of Religious Opportunity," and was one of the principal addresses on the program.

LEGION TO HELP RETURNED WARRIORS

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, May 21—Aiding returned sailors, soldiers and marines in obtaining employment, their war bonuses and providing information as to war risk insurance in addition to special relief work and an opportunity for comradeship between all world war veterans, will be offered in the Kentucky branches of the American Legion, according to Judge Henry De Haven Moorman, of Hardinsburg, Ky. He was elected temporary state commander for Kentucky at St. Louis recently when the Legion was formed.

"More than anything else," said Judge Moorman, "will be the opportunity of Kentucky veterans to establish themselves on the platform of broad Americanism as set forth by the St. Louis caucus No. Bolshevik of radical representatives will be members and the organization will be 100 percent Americanized," he added.

Bureaus in Kentucky will be formed to handle problems of the returning service man, such as bonuses, insurance, compensation, employment and relief, Judge Moorman explained, adding that the state executive committee would direct this work through district and county organizers.

The preamble of the constitution expresses the organization's purpose in this manner:

"For God and Country, we unite to uphold and defend the constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a 100 percent Americanism; to preserve memories and incidents of the great war; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state nation; combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; make right the master of might; promote peace and good will on earth; safeguard and transmit to posterity the principle of justice, freedom, and democracy, and consecrate and satisfy our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

Mr. Moorman is authorized to appoint a chairman in each congressional district, who will name a representative man in each county of his district to call county meetings, after which soldiers, sailors, and marines of each county will organize one or more local posts. An executive committee of thirteen members, he said, will be appointed to meet and advise him in issuing instructions for organization in the state. Preliminary arrangements may be considered at once, but no action, will be taken until national authorities direct, officers of each post to be organized, as well as the state organization, will include a commander, vice-commander, adjutant, finance officer, master-at-arms and chaplain.

man; and Mrs. Eddy defines Christ as "divine man; the perfect man; the man who came to the flesh to destroy in carnate error" (Science and Health, p. 583). Because Christian Scientists understand the divinity of Christ they are enabled to heal the sick and reform the sinner.

No wonder Solomon said: "Get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding." Jesus did not advise us to acquire a human knowledge of disease in order to heal disease. He did not counsel his followers to study medical works in order to cope intelligently with the ill of the flesh. He did not say to study what the world says about sin in order to avoid its experience. What did he say? This: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; which is equivalent to saying, 'Seek ye first the spiritual understanding of God and his right thoughts or ideas.' Christian Science has come to open the door of consciousness to receive this understanding of God, and to apply it to the correction of every human mistake. Before Christian Science came, who of us ready to know how to correct the belief of sickness or suffering? Did we not invariably magnify its seeming presence by voicing the belief in it? Did we not, in fact, in contact? Did we not ally ourselves on the side of the physical sense by admitting that we had the ailment, and that it actually belonged to us? And did we not often send for the trusted, family doctor, who invariably confirmed our fears, and who next told us why this selfsame doctor went to work to prove, both to himself and to his patient, that the so-called ailment was not really belong to the patient after all. Had it been a part of reality, he would have been obliged to keep it forever.

How do we deal with this subject in Christian Science? We agree to disagree with the very first intimation of disease in any form; recognizing such approach as the tempter, suggesting life and intelligence in matter, and a power apart from God. We strive to maintain a mental poise on the side of harmonious being by controlling the reality and supremacy of spiritual existence. We seldom voice error to anyone. This enables us to magnify good and to minimize evil, and by acknowledging God's omnipotence and omnipresence, we soon experience a normal state of mind and body. By working through the understanding instead of through blind belief, we lose our false sense of discord, and thought is uplifted and purified; and that pride and self-will and mad ambition, comforts the sorrowing, quenches false appetites, and last but not least it does away with the evidence of sin. Thousands of witnesses in all parts of the world will testify under oath that Christian Science has healed them of so-called incurable diseases. There can be no intelligent denial of such testimony. The evidence is overwhelming that Christian healing is today an established fact in the world.

TRUE FREEDOM

What measure of freedom do we all enjoy? It must be conceded that we cannot bring out in our lives anything above our highest concept of God. If this concept is false, it is to be the author and sender of disease, it is perfectly consistent for us to have disease. We should not even want to get rid of it, if we honestly believe that God sent it. Christian Science makes it clear to us that we do not know the true meaning of freedom, until we learn how to conceive of God, which a mistaken sense of God is directly responsible.

Man's birthright is entire freedom from bondage of every desecrated thing. There is, therefore, a law operative to bring this about; and Christian Scientists are striving to live in conformity to this law, desecrated in the name of the "perfect law of liberty." They have not yet reached the goal of spiritual perfection, but they are striving to have done so; but they are breaking up the false ground, making it ready for the seeds of the Father's planing, and they are preparing a better for his spiritual blessings already received.

We are in duty bound to take possession of what God gives alike to all his children. We are not to be content with human plane by making active use of what we are already conscious of having. It is the good one does with one's wealth that makes one truly wealthy. The mere hoarding of material riches, too often makes one a pauper instead of a prince in the sight of God. Belief in the multiplication of material wealth makes a mathematician. The use or application of it would. Mere belief in God does not make a Christian. The application of God's power to overcome evil does make a Christian. Simply believing in Love neither makes us loving nor lovable, nor does it bestow upon us the right of possession of any of God's blessings; but love expressed in thought and action gives us spiritual dominion, which is the only real freedom.

Quoting a poem from The Christian Science Journal (March, 1915) entitled "Freedom":

When I have bowed my every thought to Thee,
When I can see with inner light divine
That all Thou art is here and now and mine—
Then I am free.

When I have above all sin and passion rise,
And thought with Thee is raised unto the skies,
And trustingly my hand within Thine lies,
Then I am free.

When I can see Thy will is best for me,
And joyfully resign my will to Thee,
And seek no love but Thine,—ah, tenderly,
Then I will prove in deed
That I am free.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HEALING
The world is today deeply interested in the subject of healing. Suffering humanity is looking in every direction for cessation of pain. More and more frequently, and as last realized, it turns to Christian Science, and through the open door of compassionate Love it finds its way into that haven of rest and peace which is above mortal ken. The beneficent influence of Christian Science is far-reaching. "It blesses him who gives and him who takes." It is about respect for ailments. It appeals to all classes of people, bidding them awaken from the day-dream of life in matter. Those who listen to its message of "peace, good will toward men," experience moral and physical healing.

It is very plain to the student of Christian Science that the direct exerts of wrong thinking upon the body, such as the indulgence of malice, anger, hatred, and revenge, cannot be healed either by drugs or knives. The root of the trouble is not visible in any physical manifestation but lies hidden in the dark recesses of mortal consciousness. In this consciousness must we wrangle with every mortal belief and fear, and silence their self-assumed right to existence. Before a real or permanent healing can be accomplished, only through excluding from consciousness all unhealthy and unwelcome thoughts do we make practical use of the ounce of prevention. This is the key to the secret body to correct the effects of sinful thoughts, and thus, in trying to erase a shadow on the wall without interfering with that which is responsible for the shadow, we are in error.

Christian Science deals direct with the material in the wrong thinking of disease. If one is receptive to the idea of God, ready and willing to be shown how to change his habits of thought, this idea will quickly replace a multitude of erroneous theories and opinions and often bring immediate relief from suffering.

The greatest reform movement on earth today is Christian Science healing, because it means the coming of Christ to individually human consciousness. One who honestly applies Christian Science, even as a remedy for some so-called physical ailment, will meet with the greatest surprise of his life. He will find that he is not really satisfied with bodily healing, he is satisfied with the spiritual healing which the divine blessings immediately available. He is not content with being kindly for he is not content with it is too good to be true. But he is not content with that, but he is coming to the truth of his being; that the real man always was the natural recipient of all good.

It must, therefore, be seen that Christian Science healing is no impractical or theoretical vagary of the mortal human mind. On the contrary, it means the transformation of the body by the renewing of the mind. It means the readjustment of mental concepts concerning every human condition. It is one's only passport to happiness and success. It means conformity to law and order; the ability to think and to do as God would have one think and do.

When brought face to face with the goodness and grandeur of infinite Mind, the thought of physical healing pales into insignificance. But, in the Christian development and progress, as a proof of awakening from a material to a spiritual sense, its importance cannot be overestimated. Regardless of race or creed, one must experience and understand the Christ-healing before one is really started on the road to heaven. As Jesus plainly stated: "If I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you" (Luke 11:20). Christ could do no more than make known his healing presence. His coming is not figurative, not a mere theory to be accepted or rejected at will, but a fact which is irrefragable, incontrovertible, demonstrable fact; an active vitalizing prelude to all true spiritual attainment.

ONE ANTIDOTE
It is the mission of Christian Science to overcome faith in so-called material remedies, and to point humanity to the perfect antidote for every ailment, divine Love. Jesus prescribed one universal remedy for every human discord, whether in the form of physical sickness. He said: "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." This meant something more than to pass him a personal visit; else his words are a mockery to present day Christians. It means to gain an understanding of the Christ, and to experience the full coming of Christ. It may profess belief in God, but such belief fails to bring salvation or even surcease of suffering.

What is the great burden of mankind? It is the spiritual understanding that man has no real life or existence apart from God. This understanding brings a sense of peace, joy and health that surpasses all human knowledge. It softens the disposition, chastens the affections, silences the pride and self-will and mad ambition, comforts the sorrowing, quenches false appetites, and last but not least it does away with the evidence of sin. Thousands of witnesses in all parts of the world will testify under oath that Christian Science has healed them of so-called incurable diseases. There can be no intelligent denial of such testimony. The evidence is overwhelming that Christian healing is today an established fact in the world.

FALSE TEACHING

Even in this enlightened twentieth century the world is burdened with false teaching. The burden of concerning health and disease which is misleading in the extreme. It is the province of Christian Science to correct this false teaching, and to point humanity to Christ Jesus as the sole authority on all subjects essential to human progress and happiness.

Who is the greatest disease ever establishing a clinic? He paid little attention to disease or its symptoms; but he constantly healed the sick by the spoken word. He had no followers, he had no disciples, he had no church. He had no knowledge of disease as an entity or reality. His mission was to bring the knowledge of God to the world. He was a knowledge of God, a knowledge of realities and nonentities. This was not a matter of teaching or learning, but of understanding. It requires spiritual understanding to do this; and according to Scripture this understanding is the knowledge of the holy, or of God.

What would be thought of a watchmaker who were to establish a school of watchmaking, and to teach the subject of broken watches? Would not this be rather a futile way to acquire a knowledge of the construction of a perfect watch?

Would the musician who advocated a systematic study of discords ever succeed in bringing out a true sense of harmony and melody?

Would the moralist who spent the most of his time in delving into vice and wickedness, be enabled to impress his followers with a sense of purity and moral rectitude? Would not this negative research on his part tend to dim his perception of spirituality?

Has anyone ever heard of a school of mathematics where mistakes in calculation are specialized, to the exclusion of the rule of exactness which alone enables one to correct such mistakes?

What housewife would add to her skill in bread making who devoted her time and attention to analyzing and classifying different kinds of unpalatable bread?

Would a human parent be very liable to advise his child to make a special study of malice, envy, hatred, and revenge as a necessary preliminary to understanding the nature of the ever present, divine Love?

Then why make an exception in the case of disease? Why insist that it alone among the errors of human mind shall be feared, studied, investigated, diagnosed, discussed, and published broadcast in the attempt to find health, that which annihilates disease? Christian Science makes it very clear to the world that this is a very sure method of perpetuating disease and of eradicating one's true sense of health. It is an age-old method; but accompanied by fear, disease, suffering, and death. One of the first lessons of Christian Science teaches us to reverse this barbarous habit of thinking, talking, and heretofore the student of Christian Science. There is nothing more enervating, demoralizing than to magnify in thought some phase of evil which one is striving to overcome. Can the popular theory of so-called disease germs ever be eradicated without ceasing to fear it, and without ceasing to hear, think, and talk about such subjects? Every professing Christian should know that the mental image of disease, next to that of sin, is one of his very worst enemies; and that it is a mission of Christ, or true idea of God, to rid him of this enemy. He will then recognize Christian Science as his best friend, and become a student of Christian Science, and an opponent of disease. He will study, think, and talk about the thing he wishes to experience and not about its opposite.

There is a lesson for us all in the experience of the specialist, who often succumbs to the very disease of which he has made a specialty. Many of us know the effects of reading medical works.

Why should humanity be loath to hear about the nature of disease, and to take the necessary steps to correct it? Why should it be skeptical concerning the only possible means of protection from disease?

PROTECTION
Protection is divine, not human. The law of right is the only law of protection. Only an ignorance of God could tempt one who is doing wrong to ask for protection in that wrongdoing. Truth does not protect error. Love does not protect hate. Right thought is no protection to wrong thought. But resistance, followed by obedience to God's law, enables one to abide under the shadow of the Almighty. He alone who is thinking right and doing right is entitled to the protection of God. Love is humanity's protection, and is entirely due to a misunderstanding of God and man. Can such inhumanity be done away with without acquiring a correct idea or understanding of God? Indeed not! No more than could a mistake in computation be eliminated without a correct understanding of the principles of mathematics. Whoever acquires the right idea of Love will be protected from the world's fear and hate. The study of a hundred volumes of books on disease, or the present one from the ravages of the disease. A scientist's knowledge of God is necessary to destroy disease. Whatever is inherently right, being a law unto itself, is its own protection. Right thinking is right practice. Wrong thinking is wrong, or malpractice. The one needs no protection of the other, could not have it if it would.

Christian Science practice, being the operation of God's law in human consciousness, is entitled to the protection which is being so generously accorded it throughout the civilized world.

PRACTITIONER AND TREATMENT
Students of Christian Science who have experienced healing and moral regeneration, who have made a thorough study of our Leader's works, and are loyal to her teachings, are in a position to prove to others their understanding of the Christ-healing. Through what is known as treatment, hundreds of persons throughout the world are daily being healed by Christian Science. Such treatment is not the erroneous influence of any form of mesmerism or hypnotism, of one human mind over another, but it is the activity of the Word of God in human consciousness. It is the mental approach or coming of the right idea of God. It is the prayer that knows no restriction of the what constitutes the kingdom of God in man.

Many who are sufficiently purified in thought and action to live in accordance with the right idea of treatment, and who can devote their time to such work, are known as Christian Science practitioners. Their mission is to bring primarily to effect physical healing, but to bring to humanity a scientific understanding of God and His "saving health." This right idea of health acts as a spiritual leaven, purging out of human consciousness every erroneous or unholy thought.

There is nothing more sacred than treatment in Christian Science; and the practitioner who knows that of himself he can do nothing, but that it is through divine power alone that the healing works are wrought, is indeed a true follower of Christ. The real work of the practitioner is to purify his own consciousness so that it may become a transparency for Truth to shine through. He arrogates no power to himself. He indulges in no self-glorification. He judges no man. The practitioner is, therefore, no mental freak or prodigy; he is a practical, temperate, and sane man, who earns his modest wage through faithful, systematic work. He knows that to work is to "pray with the understanding," and that the only service a service of love. His God-corrected mentality, constantly radiating Truth and Love, is a boon to any community. As right spiritual understanding, or spiritual censorship of world conditions is constantly sifting the chaff from the wheat, he is continually doing as he would be done by, and loving his neighbor as himself; in a word, minding his own business.

THE TEXTBOOK
Along with all these subjects, Christian Science has its textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy. This book is indeed a spiritual key to the Bible, and as such it has proved itself to be the Bible's best friend. It has opened up the hidden spiritual or metaphysical meaning of the Scriptures, has caused thousands of persons to reverence the "Book of books" as never before; to ponder and study its sacred pages from pure motives of love for the truth; has greatly increased its sale and circulation; in fact has made the Bible an indispensable companion in numberless homes throughout all sections of the world.

Despite all opposition to what mortals imagine Christian Science to be, the demand for Mrs. Eddy's book is constantly increasing; and its inspired, healing message continues to bring joy and happiness into the lives of suffering humanity. It has been the work of one who has recently been healed: "I have been studying Christian Science for nearly a year. Need I say that I have just begun to live? I have burst the chrysalis of ignorance and doubt, of misunderstanding and fear, and am free, and the deep peace of heaven and a new earth." My whole plan of thought and action has been revolutionized. I have found health; but above and beyond that, I have found that peace... which passeth all understanding." Would anyone imbued with the love of Christ attempt to stay the silent influence of a book that will accomplish such wonderful results?

Science and Health is making its appeal to all humble-minded persons. Through a prayerful study of the book thousands are daily experiencing moral and physical healing, and acquiring a demonstrable understanding of Truth. Little reason, then, why it should not appeal to all classes of people in their varied vocations. Some of the leading artists, actors, musicians, authors, professors and scholars of the day will tell you that Science and Health is their daily companion and that they draw their inspiration from its sacred pages. Prominent business men, the world over, say the same thing. They will also declare that their application of the Principle of Christian Science has brought them their only success in business.

Broad-minded ministers, physicians, lawyers, and editors, and many more of the world's best people are not only reading but they are studying the Christian Science textbook, some of them in the quiet of their homes. Thus the heaven of Truth is at work, sometimes in directions where least expected. Truly Christian Science churches are constantly increasing in number and in membership; and in this connection it is interesting to know that the only pastor of the Church of Christ, Scientist, is the Bible and "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures."

Results certainly prove that the Christian Science textbook is a scientific presentation to the world of right ideas. These brave warriors of the mental realm will continue to "fight the good fight of faith," and to "lay hold on eternal life," until "earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea" (Hab. 2:14).

CONCLUSION
Christian Scientists are earnestly striving to be loyal, patriotic citizens. They are in full sympathy with all those high ideals which make for a true Christian democracy; and in the present great world problem of reconstruction, involving the life liberty, freedom, and justice of all nations they are courageously doing their part in upholding these ideals, which are to usher in universally that government of the people, by the people, for the people, which "shall not perish from the earth."

In the year 1842 Lincoln gave expression to another remarkable utterance when he said: "Happy day when all appeals are controlled by the sacred, all matters subjected—mind, all conquering mind, shall live and move the monarch of the world. Glorious consummation!"
